

Environmental Screening

A social, environmental and economic (SEE) screening was conducted to identify built and natural resources within the study area and to identify any potential fatal-flaw issues to trail development in this area.

Streams, lakes, wetlands, floodplains, other water resources, and protected water bodies were identified within the study area, in order to try to avoid and minimize potential impacts to these water resources, when future trail alignments are considered.

